Get answers to your business questions within 24 hours

We've all experienced situations where deadlines are cut, an urgent request needs answers tomorrow, or decisions need extra validation without much budget. Harris 24 is for those moments when you need to canvass consumer opinion from nationally representative populations to targeted audiences, quickly and cost effectively.

Fast, targeted & international!

- Ultrafast high quality insights from up to 5000 consumers
- Real time data access via an analytics platform with exportable outputs
- Reach of 13+ million global consumers across 50+ markets via the Toluna community
- Pre-qualified consumers on 60+ demographics/profiles + custom targeting
- Up to 50 questions per survey
- Easy survey duplication for multiple audiences/markets
- Harris expert survey design support included. Additional request services: translations, data tables, open end coding, specialist weighting, ppt report

You can launch a survey whenever you need to. Harris 24 is a flexible & speedy alternative to omnibus surveys. You can also use your own customer sample.
