Everyday Decisions

- 95% of our daily decisions are System 1, i.e. fast, automatic, spontaneous and sub-conscious.
- Using our quick timed exposure design, you will have an instant spontaneous reaction on brand attribution/confusion along with open ended feedback about what consumers see on your packaging and how they feel about it.
- Up to three exposures can be chosen with different time lengths.

To deliver actionable insights faster

24 hour guarantee for general population reach for UK/US/DE/FR/IT/ES with 150 respondents per pack

2 to 5 days for more targeted audiences and/or other markets

- Automated real time dashboard with a clear view of the winning packaging and an online analysis tool using Toluna's innovative technology platform. Easy to interpret and share with your stakeholders.
- Standardised PPT delivered by Harris Interactive experts with bespoke summary.

Harris' industry experts will support you at every step, providing the insights you need.

Pack Express works alone or alongside our agile concept testing service, Concept Express. Design, approach, and dashboard similarities create an easy to use solution for a systematic testing programme.

If needed, a more complex competitive shelf solution or a bespoke survey can be customised for you.
